My experiences as a builder, a small business owner, and a volunteer on two city committees make me ideally suited to serve you on the City Council. I am a strong fiscal conservative with four years of service on the City's Budget Committee. I will make responsible decisions about your tax dollars. A major challenge is the lack of housing. I have experience renovating blighted properties and adding homes to the rental market. I will make sure the Council prioritizes housing. I am also committed to improving city services, from roads to parks.
